PRODUCT SHEETS

In the field of communication Balma, Capoduri & C. spa has always paid particular attention to the realisation of leaflets, instruction sheets and catalogues which are able to clearly explain the characteristics, the functioning and the advantages offered by the ZENITH and Coccinea products.

The packages, made mainly using the colours that characterise our two lines - red for ZENITH trademark, blue for Coccinea - show images which are able to make the content of each box easily and immediately recognisable.

All packaging, from the cartons to the single boxes conceived for the points of sale, are planned and realised in a functional manner, in order to limit weights and volumes to the minimum necessary, avoiding any oversizing and at the same time guaranteeing a proper protection for the products.

"Sustainability", which has always been an essential and indispensable value of our business, is expressed in the social, economic and environmental fields, and is for us also synonymous with durability.

In fact, our products are designed and manufactured to last over time, they are tested one by one and GUARANTEED FOR LIFE... in sharp contrast to the logic of "disposable"!

In an era of easy relocation, the products of the ZENITH and Coccinea ranges continue to give a concrete example of what it means to be  and to be proud of it; for this reason we have decided to print on all the boxes of our products a mark clearly stating that they are really, totally and proudly Italian.

These product sheets are intended to communicate in a simple way the structural and technical/functional features of our products, pointing out the many advantages that our products are able to offer to an increasingly demanding end-user in terms of performance, durability and good functioning.

We believe that the best and deepest knowledge of our products can guarantee a decisive competitive advantage, in front of end-users who are increasingly careful to concretely verify what is "promised" by the many different offers on the market.

Notes: for effortless stapling and good working of your staplers, "ZENITH" staples are remarkable for the high quality of the wire and for the particular grinding of the legs end, ensuring a better penetration. The high quality standard is the result of accurate production techniques and strict controls during the manufacturing and packing phases. This range offers many staple sizes and different types of wire suitable for any stapling need, for example, zincplated wire which gives better resistance to oxidization; light aluminium alloy, non-magnetic and anti-rust, ideal for little dossiers, used also to staple sheets of ply-wood without damaging the tools and Monel alloy (nickel and copper with traces of other metals) which is widely used for photographic development because of its resistance to acid solutions.

Descriptive notes:

The new "ZENITH" pen holder ref. 820 is an object with a unique and special design, characterised by simple and essential lines, whose innovative shape is protected at patent level as a Utility Model. It consists of two components made entirely in metal, with a nickel-plated pen holder cylinder and a base painted in the four available colours: red bordeaux, blue, black and white.

Quality: Life-guarantee for manufacturing defects.

In addition: unlike the other pen holders currently in use, generally consisting of a single piece (glass) to be placed on the desk, and mostly devoid of the necessary stability in case of accidental impacts, the ZENITH 820 pen holder guarantees absolute stability in every situation, given by the size and strength of the base where the pen holder cylinder is inserted. Even the packaging is particularly accurate in the graphics, presenting the product at its best in its different colours.

Composition: glue based on polyvinyl alcohol (solvent free)

Maintenance: after use, replace the cap tightly; if the cap is not completely sealed the glue applicator may become obstructed. However, this can easily be removed by rinsing the applicator with water.

Descriptive notes:

“Coccoina” liquid glues have the traditional fragrance of the “Coccoina” glues and are suitable for gluing paper, thincards, cardboard, photos, cloths, etc.

The tubes of 25, 50 and 100 g are practical to use, very effective and easy to apply by pressing lightly on the tube. “Coccoina 81” ref. 681, in particular, is remarkable among the liquid glues range both for its size (100 g) and for its original and very functional sponge dispenser; furthermore each little tube may be easily hung as blister.

“Coccoina 81” ref.681 and “Coccoina 84” ref. 684 are suitable for applying glue on large surfaces.

On the other hand, “Coccoina 88” ref.688, with its rubber applicator, is perfect for accurately applying glue to well-defined and limited areas.

All the “Coccoina” liquid glues are suitable for office, home and school use because of their practical features.

The packagings are also practical and effective for desk displays, providing a better presentation of the product on the point of sale.

Descriptive notes:

After the success of the first line of paper products in "Vintage" style, with beautiful and rare ancient pictures of old "Coccoina" advertising campaigns, here comes a new assortment characterized by covers in four modern Pastel colours. The new "Pastel" line includes two ruled wirebounded notepads, in A5 and A6 sizes, and two softcover notebooks elegantly stitched, still in A5 and A6 sizes. All the covers are decorated with an embossed trimming which recalls the original one on the label of "Coccoina" aluminium tin... while the internal pages, in ivory paper of 85 g/sqm, are imbued with the characteristic almond fragrance of all "Coccoina" glues. Each article is packaged in a single transparent envelope, labelled with description and barcode. The packaging is also particularly accurate, with personalised "Coccoina" paper bands. In order to enhance the visibility of the products in the points of sale, a new counter display has also been realized, with a pleasant and simple design, which contains four pcs. of each article in addition to four aluminium tins of "Coccoina" adhesive paste. The aluminium tins supplied with the display (but also available in their display boxes of 10 pcs.) have something new (ref. 603/P): the labels are also in the same Pastel colours of the notepads and notebooks they come with, for a pleasant colour matching!
